

The Nationalist Times Endorses Merlin Miller

Web Team

This is the easiest endorsement for president The Nationalist Times has made in its 27 year history. Merlin Miller is a good and decent man who believes in and stands for all the right things. He's a breath of fresh air in a country slowly but surely strangling from its bizarre toxic mix of corruption, delusions and lies.

The "lesser of two evils" nonsense must be decisively rejected if America is to live. In the last decade, the government of the Disunited Cultural Marxist States of America has grown like a giant tumor, and now threatens not only the "homeland" but the entire world with annihilation.

The perpetual two-party monopoly is an illegitimate disgrace. The American people are in mortal danger because of their ignorance, but even they in large numbers want a more open political system rather than the Soviet Lite version that the U.S. Empire has fine-tuned over the generations. Watching the national conventions of the two monopoly gangs, with their party apparatchiks continually yelling "USA!" "USA!" "USA!" like Pavlov's dogs on steroids while smashing any kind of genuine dissent and open discussion only lends to the inescapable conclusion that this is a country gone not only totalitarian but mad.

The only discernible difference between Mitt Romney and Barack Obama is that if Obama is re-elected there is a 98 percent chance of the Zionist Axis – Washington, Tel Aviv and London – launching a war of aggression against Iran, whereas if Romney is elected it's a virtual 100 percent certainty. The U.S. has surrounded Iran with over 60 military bases, has in place a huge naval armada, and has already been engaged for years in a barely covert war against Iran involving propaganda, cyber-weapons, assassinations and psychological operations. It is difficult to see such massive war preparations simply being abandoned without being used.

War with Iran at best will result in the deaths of many, many thousands of Iranian civilians along with the destruction of the infrastructure of one of the oldest civilizations on earth. At worst it will ignite a global war that might result in nukes and chemical weapons being used against America.

That alone is more than reason enough to vote for Merlin Miller and American Third Position as space limitations do not permit listing the many other severe internal and external problems facing the United States as a result of a government gone rogue and unaccountable.

What's obvious and inescapable and must be faced is that forced multiculturalism at home and constant warfare abroad can only be conducted by a totalitarian system of control. That is what voting for the "lesser of two evils” over the years has helped bring about.

Merlin Miller is on the ballot in Colorado, New Jersey and Tennessee. Some may pooh-pooh being on in only three states, but only because they are unaware of how very difficult it is for non-Republican political parties to get on the ballot, especially for a small new party like American Third Position. The bottom line is that Miller is the first patriotic, pro-White presidential candidate to be on the ballot anywhere since the 1992 election, when the Populist Party and Bo Gritz were on in 16 states. It’s a start, a good start, and one that can and will be built upon.

If you don’t live in Colorado, New Jersey or Tennessee, write in the name of Merlin Miller for President and Virginia Abernethy for Vice President on Election Day. Don’t vote for the “lesser of two evils” — do something positive and vote for a ticket and party that every red-blooded American can be proud of.
